

INDEX

TO

THE SIXTH VOLUME.

|   |                        |   |     |
|---|------------------------|---|-----|
| ADDISON and Steele, revolution caused by their writings      | 279                    | Ariosto and his translator, remarks on   | 73  |
| Addison a punster  | 26                     | Aristocracy , the want of a natural and efficient one, one great cause of the disasters of the French revolution | 359 |
| Adversaria   | 55, 129, 203, 246, 360 | Artificial tastes, remarks on  | 267 |
| Address of Rolla compared with lines by Cowper               | 203                    | Arts , why discouraged in America  | 77  |
| Agriculture , state of in Caracas                            | 331                    | “Arundel” and “Henry,” brief notices of   | 185 |
| Almanacs , on the use of                                     | 424                    | Ascension , island of, curious singularity respecting  | 433 |
| —————, an improvement of suggested                                  | 426                    | Avarice , an example of  | 378 |
| American newspapers, invective against                       | 434                    | Bas Bretons , account of   | 380 |
| —————, objections to answered                                       | 437                    | Bank paper money of Great Britain, on the  | 163 |
| Anacreon Moore, his censures of America                      | 220                    | Banks , origin of many of them   | 165 |
| —————, answers to   | ib.                    | Bards , Grecian, remarks on  | 129 |
| —————, proper mode of treating the reproaches of such a traveller   | ib.                    | Beauty , the value of  | 243 |
| Anecdotes , Turkish  | 187                    | Beaver , Mr., extracts from his journal  | 109 |
| Anecdote of a candidate for a degree                         | 377                    | Betel shrub, description of  | 21  |
| Anglo-German dialect in Philadelphia, the                    | 427                    | —————, used as a substitute for tobacco   | ib. |
| Antiquarian researches, utility of                           | 288                    | Blair , Dr. Hugh, a sketch of  | 74  |
| April, first of, curious theatrical anecdote                        | 65                     | Bleeding , South American mode of  | 377 |
| Arabian Nights, remarks on, and on Arabian tales in general  | 83                     | Blunders of the French constituent assembly  | 353 |
| Arbor-unicus , account of the                                | 270                    | Books , on the number of   | 461 |
| Areka , a species of palm, description of                    | 21                     | —————, different modes of calculating their number  | 462 |
| —————, wonderful effects of in beautifying and preserving the teeth | ib.                    | —————, on the passion for collecting  | 393 |
| —————, as a styptic, not inferior to the Peruvian bark              | ib.                    | Boswell , Cumberland’s sketch of   | 183 |
| —————, where found  | 22                     | —————, parody on  | 100 |
|   |                        | Boxing and cockfighting, eulogy of   | 266 |
|   |                        | Brasilian Portuguese , a sketch of   | 129 |

INDEX.

|  |     |  |          |
|--|-----|--|----------|
| Brackers, Russian, excellent regulations respecting  | 455 | Dermody, the Irish poet, account of                                    | 167      |
| Brissot's travels, anecdote in   | 77  | Diaper, origin of its name, and that of many other kinds of stuff      | 203      |
| British institution, the, account of   | 106 | Disgusting objects, reasons of their pleasing when painted             | 268      |
| British arms, causes of the bad success of on the continent  | 335 | Dodington, lord Melcombe, account of that singular character           | 34       |
| Broek, the village of, a traveller's curious account of  | 275 | Dress, influence of the appetite for                                   | 131      |
| Browne, sir Thomas, on the style of  | 246 | Duties of life, the Reflector's observations on                        | 287, 363 |
| Bulam, account of the British African colony at  | 108 | Ease in style, remarks on  | 304      |
| Caracas, account of the  | 323 | Easton Delaware bridge, account of                                     | 471      |
| —, productions of  | 331 | Emigrant, an, in America   | 411      |
| —, its trade   | 332 | English metal promissory notes   | 339      |
| —, government and finances   | 333 | Envy, picture of   | 57       |
| Catalogue of catalogues  | 462 | Error, arguments in favour of the propagation of                       | 341      |
| Charlemagne and his successors, sketch of  | 417 | —, arguments e contra   | 343      |
| Chess, an anecdote respecting  | 123 | Errors of cabinets and legislatures more fatal than those of writers   | 352      |
| Christian republic, Henry IV's project of a  | 413 | Estates of the French nobles, picture of                               | 380      |
| —, means by which it was to be executed  | 414 | Fairies, Irish, their mischievous tricks                               | 48       |
| —, Henry's aim in making the proposal  | 415 | Faneuil Hall, in Boston, description of                                | 205      |
| Classical obscurities, remarks on  | 394 | Farmers in France the chief gainers by the revolution                  | 216      |
| Clermont-Tonnere, anecdote of  | 121 | Fear of death, ranked by Darwin among diseases                         | 54       |
| Commerce of America with England, Talleyrand's treatise on   | 280 | Female clothing, remarks on  | 22       |
| Commercial sketches  |     | — character, influence of  | 55       |
| Great Britain and the north of Europe  | 451 | — loquacity generally considered as a reproach on the sex              | 71       |
| Russia   | 452 | — proved to be bestowed for the best and wisest of purposes            | ib.      |
| Odessa   | 454 | Fine arts in England, state of at the close of 1805                    | 106      |
| Prussia  | 455 | Fire fly, account of the   | 392      |
| Dantzig  | 456 | Foote, anecdote of   | 144      |
| Lubec  | 457 | Founders of the French revolution, their merits                        | 351      |
| Swedish trade  | ib. | France and Great Britain compared                                      | 381      |
| Tonningen  | ib. | —, military state of   | 119      |
| The Sound  | 458 | Franklin, view of his life and writings                                | 367      |
| Denmark  | ib. | French legislators, tumultuous proceedings of                          | 296      |
| British trade to Germany   | ib. | — colonies, Talleyrand's treatise on                                   | 280      |
| Conversation, Socratic   | 469 | — vintage, a traveller's description of                                | 276      |
| Corruption of the English language by the prevailing mode of translation, cursory reflections on the | 136 | — burying places, description of                                       | 249      |
| Creoles of Caracas, sketch of their character  | 326 | — history more interesting and important than that of any other nation | 429      |
| Cumberland's Memoirs, account of, and extracts from  | 33  |  |          |
| —, bishop, tranquil death of   | 55  |  |          |
| Deaf and dumb, mode of educating the   | 3   |  |          |
| —, teachers of   | ib. |  |          |
| —, no attempts to teach in America   | 4   |  |          |
| Decline of wit in France   | 224 |  |          |

INDEX.

French revolution, injury it has done to the cause of rational freedom 345
 ——, effects of on landed property 351
 —— inns 348
 —— and Austrian military character, a comparison of 278
 —— companionship and conversation 378
 —— ordinaries 306
 —— theatres 225
 —— politeness 379
 —— irrigation 271
 Funeral customs and ideas of the Greeks 380
 Funeral of a mussulman, description of 381
 Garrick, sketch of his character 382
 General rules, on the value of 382
 Genlis, madame, account of her last work 23
 Geography, in the strict sense of the word, extremely uninteresting and unprofitable 187
 ——, systems of, strange medleys 49
 ——, on the prevailing ignorance of 89
 ——, importance of its study 187
 Germaine, lord G., account of 184
 Goldsmith and his writings characterized 225
 Gold and silver, great value of before the discovery of America 145
 Good nature and good humour, difference between 163
 Government, difference between a free and a tyrannical one 264
 Guiacum, on the nature of 356
 Hanover, conduct of the French in 389
 Hastings, Elizabeth, character of 383
 Henderson the actor, account of 363
 Hindoo almanacs 181
 Historical writing, three different modes of 72
 Homer and Ossian, comparison of their writings 431
 Honest man, an, not the noblest work of God 264
 Horace, on the translations and imitations of 122
 Horn music, a new species of 114
 Hughes, John, sketch of the life of 361
 Human wishes, the folly of 126
 Jaques, on the character of 56
 Ideal miseries 374
 Jenyns, Soame, Cumberland's portrait of 143
 Jew, the 180
 Jews, present institutions of 345
 ——, sentiments of respecting usury 348
 Jersey, description of the island of 118
 ——, its despotic government ib.
 ——, causes of its great population ib.
 Improvements in Paris since the last revolution 306
 India, account of the late revolutions in 271
 Indians of Caracas, particulars respecting the 381
 Intelligence, literary and philosophical 228, 311, 472
 Johnson, anecdote of Dr. 439
 ——, characterized by Cumberland 149
 Irish character, sketches of 38
 —— portraits 46
 Ireland, reflections on the conduct of England towards it 365
 Italy, scientific state of 297
 Junius, observations on 187
 Jurors, a lesson for 174
 Knight errant, adventures of a modern one 115
 Kotzebue, rapidity of his composition 296
 La Tiranna, a Spanish actress, account of 152
 Landscape, great use of water in 123
 Lawyers, a defence of 359
 Lewis, captain, particulars of his expedition 442
 Libraries, account of two French ones 393
 London gamblers, arts of 464
 Louis XV, anecdote of 121
 Magna Græcia, terrible effects of intestine commotions in one of the colonies of 448
 Manuscript of the Koran, curious anecdote respecting 188
 Many men, many minds 245
 Marigny, a political tale 91
 Marvellous in poetry, remarks on the 299
 Mental myopism, no spectacles for 246
 Meteoric stones, a French philosopher's theory of 412
 Michaux's Travels, notice of the translation of 137
 Milton and his family, anecdotes of 93
 Milton's Lycidas and smaller poems, remarks on 95
 Missionaries, christian, absurd conduct of in Africa 113
 Moon, apparent size of, diversity of opinions respecting 245

INDEX.

Morgan, William, his extraordinary adventures and singular character 299
 Motives of human actions, the Reflector's observations on 466
 Mysteries, remarks on 263
 Nantz theatre, description of 381
 National defence, on the best means of 403
 Neapolitan post-office, the ———, curious scenes there, described 410
 New French measures, table of 440
 New sect in Arabia, account of 189
 New York, description of 33
 Nocturnal, specimen of a 71
 North of Europe, sketch of the present commercial state of 192
 Novel-reading, remarks on 451
 Observer, the 179
 Odessa, rapid increase of its commerce and population 454
 Olympic games, advantages of 131
 Orations of the apostles, on the 68
 Origin of plants, on the 433
 Orkney islands, account of 207, 272
 Pain and pleasure, essay on 52
 Paris, environs of 380
 Penn, William, quere concerning his grave 290
 Periodical essayists, duty of 265
 Pestilence and bad government compared 448
 Pewter coins struck by Charles I and James II 340
 Petrarch, a visit to his tomb 248
 Petersburg, remarks on the seasons at 87
 Philadelphia, a splenetic foreigner's account of 261
 Picturesque, remarks on the 6
 Piety, beneficial effects of on the female mind 203
 Pitt, William, biographical sketch of ———, Nicholas, the common ancestor of the families of Chatham, Camelford, and Rivers ib.
 ———, William, earl of Chatham, his illustrious administration ib.
 Pittsburg, a sketch of 252
 Pleasures, natural, more numerous than pains 53
 Poetical translation, remarks on 441
 Poetry, observations on 204, 205
 Political conversation, the spirit of 430
 Political weathercocks compared to the tide swelled to its height 203
 Pope, his feelings not those of a poet 360
 Poplar, the, a native of Thrace and Asia Minor 28
 ———, when first introduced into North America 26
 Poplar worm, alarm excited by proved to be groundless 27, 28
 Portrait of an honest man 459
 Precedence given to ladies, on the 222
 Pressing, a fragment 52
 Prints, account of the different kinds of 103
 Public baths at Paris, description of 250
 Pursuit of happiness, on the 198
 Quaker, letter from a female 299
 Reason in poetry 96
 Reasonable love, a dialogue 428
 Red river, account of the country and productions near the 173
 Reflector, the 222, 287, 466
 Riches of a country, two senses in which it may be taken 77
 Rogers, the poet, Cumberland's notice of 188
 Romance of real life, the 70
 Romney, the painter, account of 180
 Roscius, the young, Cumberland's observations on 181
 Russian empire, remarks on 447
 ——— stage, history of 63
 ——— theatre, when first established 65
 ——— dramatic writers, list of 67
 Saturn's ring, professor Robison's account of 268
 Science and knowledge, communication of, more obstructed by local boundaries than any other kind of intercourse 297
 Sebastian of Portugal, death of 254
 ———, personated by impostors ibid.
 Short-hand writing, remarks on 421
 Shylock vindicated 125
 Similes of Homer drawn from the sea 337
 Spain, sketch of a journey in 153
 ———, present state of 302
 Spanish America, on the independence of 376
 ——— colonial government, defects of ibid.
 ——— colonies, population of 377
 ——— party, description of one 303
 ——— slaves in America, peculiar advantages possessed by 327
 Spiders, the wisdom of 438
 Standard of taste, inquiry into the reality of its existence 291
 Steele, remarks on the writings of 279

INDEX.

|  |  |
|--|--|
| Sterne, an anecdote of 418     Sumarokow, a Russian tragic poet, some account of 66     Swimming, Parisian school for 251     Tale of a Tub, quere respecting the title of 63     _____ answered 207     Tatler, Spectator, &amp;c., remarks on 141     _____, effects of on         morals and taste 278     Templars, some account of the 132     Theatrical exhibitions, remarks on 420     Theodore, king of Corsica, sketch of his life 304     Thomas, George, life of that famous adventurer 257     Thomson's versification, the most striking faults of 290     Timber, on the growth and consumption of, in Great Britain 471     Tomb of Alexander, description of 288     Total eclipse, account of the 198     _____, its effects on the         imagination of the Indians 197     Trade and literature compared 204     Travelling memorandums 378     Trumbull's M'Fingal, account of 57     Turkish chess, anecdote respecting 132     Turkish empire, state of 188     Vaccination and the small pox, comparative view of 188     Vegetation, experiments on 419     Virgil's Georgics, a book published on an obscure passage in 390     Voluntary death, a, Dr. Cheyne's wonderful account of 395     Wahabees, the, account of 258     Warehouses of Dantzic, excellent plan of 189     Wealth, effects of the torrent of, which flowed from America 456     West Indian, the, remarks on 164     Wilmington, description of the borough of 41     _____ 180    | Woman, Ledyard's praise of 56     Yellow fever compared with the         effects of bad government 450  POETRY.     Allen, John, lines on the death of 395     Amanda, elegy to 78     Bion, elegy on the death of ib.     Colubriad, the, by Cowper 59     Disappointment 319     Elegy, from the Greek 25     Epigrams, from the Greek 23     Hubert, lines addressed to 479     Hughes's advice to Pope 360     Hymn by Dr. Hawkesworth 319     Inscription on a jutting stone over         a spring 320     Invocation, the, 160     Leyrid, to, on his retirement to         the country 248     Lines to her who may understand         them 160     _____ written on reading a MS.         journal 239     M'Fingal, extracts from 57—62     My father 159     Ode to Sickness 399     Philadelphia, an elegy 239     Poplar worm, remonstrance of 80     River Fowey, or Foy, ode to 318     Sonnets 319, 320     Stanzas on the death of a young         lady 240     To Eliza, with a dove 397     To Julius, with a goose (response) ib.     Tom Thumb, description of his         visit to king Arthur's court 98     Vers addresses à madame Moreau 239     Verses written by a gentle and         timid young woman, pining under the oppression of a romantic and concealed passion 397     Wish, a 319     Women in distress, influence of 55    |
|--|--|